Your generosity makes a difference in the Vieux Carre

Since 1946, Patio Planters of the Vieux Carré has sponsored Caroling in Jackson Square, a beloved holiday tradition. This event, held every year by candlelight on the Sunday before Christmas, is always free and open to the public.

Patio Planters also makes annual contributions to various organizations, courtyards, and gardens to support the preservation and beautification of the French Quarter.

If you missed GIVE NOLA DAY, it is not too late to make a direct donation to our organization.
